PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

Dear General Walters:

Colonel Leon Turren has suggested that I contact you again enclosing a copy of my letter of 23 October 1975 in case same went astray as unfortunately I have received no reply.

I should like to avail myself of this opportunity of extending to you the Greetings of the Season.

Very respectfully yours,

PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

Dear General Walters:

STAT

At the recommendation of our mutual friend, [redacted] through whom I had the pleasure of seeing you a few times in Paris, I take the liberty of writing you direct in view of your active interest in our Intelligence service.

As I understand that our intelligence services are being re-organized in certain areas, I believe that my former Intelligence background and experience can still be of use to the Government. In accordance with Leon's suggestion, I am attaching hereto my Curriculum Vitae in the hope that you may be aware of some assignment or special project in which I could serve in a direct or consultative capacity, either in the States or overseas.

As you will note, amongst my principal Intelligence assignments, which are a matter of record, I headed the [redacted]

STAT

Later during the 1949-1950 cold war period, I was Commanding Officer of our [redacted] and this mission had as its prime responsibility the obtaining of the necessary Intelligence to determine the strategic vulnerability of the U.S.S.R. to air attack.

STAT

Prior to leaving the service in 1952, I was a [redacted] specializing in the instruction courses pertaining to the methods and techniques employed in the collection of Air Intelligence.

Although I am at present living in Europe where I have spent the major portion of my life, I should be prepared to fly to Washington at my own expense for an interview should you deem it advisable.

Very respectfully yours,
